29 – 33	20L:012 / CLSL 2002	Golden Age of Roman Poetry
> = 34	Consult department

The courses listed for each score range are recommended. The best placement for you depends on the strength of your previous coursework, your enjoyment of Latin, and whether you have been exposed to the language in other ways, such as private study. If you are unsure about your placement, contact the Classics Department (335-2323).

FURTHERING LANGUAGES INCENTIVE PROGRAM

Students may be eligible to earn incentive credit toward graduation through the Furthering Language Incentive Program (FLIP). If you are interested in earning FLIP credit, you should meet with your academic adviser to discuss eligibility.
